

Project Engineer

The Municipality of Colchester is committed to treating people fairly, with respect and dignity. Our goal is to continue to move forward as a diverse and inclusive community representative of the citizens we serve by offering equal opportunities free of biases. We have formed an Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Committee to keep us accountable and to help us reach this goal.

About the role: The Project Engineer provides technical and management support for capital projects as well as for operational functions within Public Works. Areas of focus include water treatment and distribution, wastewater collection and treatment, road networks and active transportation. They also provide technical support for development activities and economic development initiatives.

Salary Range: $100,666 – $116,741 based on a 35-hour work week. Full-time permanent position

Benefits:

- Group Benefits - Health, Dental, Life, Long Term Disability, and Accidental Death & Dismemberment
- Retirement Plan - Nova Scotia Public Service Superannuation Plan (Employer matched)
- Professional Development Opportunities & Fitness and Well-being Incentives

Qualities to succeed in the role:

- Well-developed organizational skills, ability to prioritize
- Experience managing consultants and contractors
- Sound technical background in design and construction of municipal infrastructure
- Ability to interpret, develop and review policies and standards
- Ability to develop and maintain positive, productive relationships within the organization and with the public

Education & experience required:

- Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering from a recognized Canadian University or equivalent with at least ten (10) years of experience in municipal engineering, construction projects or similar work
- Registered or able to be registered as a Professional Engineer with Engineers Nova Scotia
- Experience with design, construction, project management, and contract administration for municipal infrastructure projects, asset management training an asset
- Knowledge of methods of construction, estimating and costing as applied to municipal infrastructure
- Well versed in Microsoft office platform, experienced with cloud-based document storage, retrieval and sharing.

The Municipality supports the principles of the Nova Scotia Human Rights Act and the principles of inclusion for persons with disabilities in the Nova Scotia Accessibility Act. Applicants are encouraged to contact Human Resources at (902) 843-4193 should assistance be required throughout the application and hiring process.

Please submit a covering letter and resume by February 2, 2024, to the Municipality of Colchester. kgrattomccarthy@colchester.ca To learn more about us, please visit our website at www.colchester.ca.